

PRESS RELEASE:

Promotion of Dominic Bulfin to Associate Director – 01 August 2020

The Directors of the award-winning luxury asset law firm, Bargate Murray, are delighted to announce the promotion of Senior Associate, Dominic Bulfin to Associate Director with effect from 01 August 2020.

CEO Quentin Bargate comments:

"Dom has shown the Directors that he is now a top class superyacht lawyer and worthy of promotion to Associate Director. He is liked by clients and has a bright future with the firm. I congratulate him!"

Dominic Bulfin comments:

"I joined Bargate Murray in 2019 not only to boost my legal development, but also to work in an environment in which I could enjoy greater involvement in the management and development of the firm. The Board have supported many of my initiatives which I look forward to rolling out over the next year, and I am very grateful for the show of confidence from the CEO and other Directors this promotion demonstrates. Bargate Murray is a great place to work, and I am excited to see what my future holds at the firm."

DOMINIC BULFIN - Associate Director

Dom advises owners and their representatives on all aspects of superyacht ownership and management, including the negotiation of new build and refit contracts, interior design contracts, contracts for the purchase of toys, tenders and lifeboats, sale and purchase agreements and sale and charter agency agreements, as well as matters relating to the employment of crew members and operational staff.

Dom is often called upon to offer real-time support for Captains and yacht managers as matters requiring immediate attention arise onboard.
