

September 2023 - For Immediate Release:
Robert Calleja appointed as Senior Associate

Bargate Murray, the multi-award winning Luxury Asset Law Firm is delighted to announce the appointment of Robert Calleja (pictured left) to Senior Associate with effect from 1st September 2023.

Robert has a primary focus on private / corporate jet and superyacht transactions, providing advice to owners, operators and financiers, including in relation to financings (loans, security and finance leases), sale and purchase, charters and operating leases.

Quentin Bargate, Founder and CEO, comments:

“We are delighted to welcome Robert to the team at Bargate Murray, and we are looking forward to introducing him to our clients and contacts over the coming weeks and months, starting at the Monaco Yacht Show in September. Robert is an experienced lawyer and a great addition to our thriving luxury asset practice.”

Robert Calleja, Director, comments:

“I am very excited to be joining Bargate Murray, which has an excellent reputation as a luxury assets law firm - in particular it’s superyacht and private jet offering. I’m looking forward to help grow the practice drawing on my own private aviation and marine transactional experience and building on the firm’s success in those sectors.”
